This Application for or the issuance of a sewage permit does not give the property owner the right to begin construction of any structure. A building permit must be secured from the Fayette County Office of Planning, Zoning and Community Development if you plan to build in the Borough of Markleysburg prior to beginning construction. A building permit must be secured from the Henry Clay Township Zoning office if you plan to build in Henry Clay Township, prior to beginning construction. Furthermore, the property owner must comply with all other applicable Borough or Township, State and Federal regulations and laws.

I certify that the above information is correct and that the premises covered by this application will have no industrial, institutional or other non-domestic wastewater discharges and that I/We will conform to the "Sanitary Sewer System Rules and Regulations" Governing the installation, construction, and use of the Sewer System, issued November 2004 and as amended.
